COMMUNICATION AND DISSEMINATION STRATEGIES

1) COMMUNICATION

1.1 Internal communication:

On-time and effective communication among partners is one of the key elements for the success of the project. To ensure effective coordination among the consortium throughout the project lifetime, the partners agree to ensure effective internal communication among them.

In-person meetings:

To assure that, the coordinator will organize at least 2 live meetings:

- the Kick-off meeting in Zagreb, Croatia (08/04/2024);
- partner meeting in Zagreb, Croatia (30/09/2024 and 01/04/2024)

which will be opportunities for the partners to communicate in person and to discuss how to make the project's implementation more successful, to solve possible open questions or problems, and to plan the next steps.

Online meetings:

The partners will have regular online meetings. They are scheduled every two months, but in case of need, they can be organized more often. Organizing online meetings is the task of the coordinator. The partners will have one person in their organization that will be in communication with the coordinator and these persons will participate in all the online meetings.

E-mail, Google Drive

The partners will keep up with the effective and regular communication by e-mail. The coordinator created a mailing list at the beginning of the project. In this way, the partners can communicate with the coordinator but also among each other. E-mails will be used all the time between the meetings, in order to share different information, documents, or discuss different matters important for the successful implementation of the project.

A Google Drive folder for the project has been created at the beginning of the project's implementation. It will be used as a platform to share different documents and other information for all partners to see, check and comment on them. Using Google Drive will make it much easier for partners to upload reports, texts, results, and other documents they need to deliver to the coordinator. Furthermore, the folder will serve as an archive for the consortium, with all important documents inside.

1.2 External communication:

The project coordinator will communicate with the European Commission when any open questions, problems, or some changes occur. They will submit the reports and send other relevant documents. They will communicate with relevant stakeholders, like hotels, restaurants, working spaces, and so on, when organizing events. They will support partners in organizing events in their countries, and possibly communicate with different stakeholders in their countries.

Partners will communicate with different stakeholders in their countries when they organize the local events. They will be in charge of communication with selected participants selected for their local events.

With the broader public, the consortium will communicate with posts on their web pages and Facebook. It is possible for partners to communicate with the broader public with other social media accounts.

2) DISSEMINATION

2.1 Target groups

The target groups of the project are:

1) Youth. Young people aged 18 to 26 will be involved directly in different working packages:

- WP2, WP3, WP4 - School of Democracy in Croatia, Italy, and Slovenia. Young people will be invited to participate in the events by their professors in the affiliated universities, who directly will present them the event during classes held beforehand. Invitations will also be shared on the social media and web pages of the partner organizations. 3 modules per country, 25 young people per country.

- WP5 - Youth camp. Participants of the School of Democracy in the partner countries will be invited to take part in the international youth camp. During the modules, the professors involved will present the opportunity and invite interested young people. SABA will share an open call and information pack on the event among the participants of the School of Democracies, from the e-mail collected on the participants' lists. 1 youth camp, 25 participants from Croatia, Italy, and Slovenia.
- WP6, WP7, WP8 - Research. Involved young people will include: for Croatia, students of the Faculty of Political Science in Zagreb. Documenta has a mentoring programme with the students, and will directly involve them in the activities for Croatia, they will be reached through the mentoring programme. For Italy, youth involved through the affiliated University of Udine, reached through their professor, in communication with the project coordinator. For Slovenia: youth involved through the affiliated University of Ljubljana, reached through their professor, in communication with the project coordinator. The youth branch of the partner organizations ZZBNOB Slovenia will be also involved in the project. 3 research conducted in the partner countries. At least 25 young people per country.

Youth will be indirectly involved as a target group for the project's results developed in the mentioned working packages, and shared through the social media and web pages of the project partners. Youth will also be the main target group for WP10: social media campaign. The campaign will be shared on the portal of SABA RH and on the web pages of the partner organizations (see D10.1; D10.2).

2) Journalists and media professionals:

- WP1 - Kick off. Journalists will be invited to participate in the kick-off meeting, and contacted through the mailing lists and networks of the partner organizations, and in particular of SABA RH. Journalists will report on the event and follow the project implementation. To be involved: Novosti, VIDA TV, HINA. 1 event.
- WP9 - Round table. Journalists and media professionals will be invited and be the main target group of R9, they will be reached through the mailing list for media and networks of the partner organizations. At the event, journalists will be presented the research methodology and its results (D9.1 and D9.2), to share with the public of their respective countries and to contribute with their expertise to the finalization of the results. To be involved: SLOTV1; Novosti; and at least 1 more media outlet. 1 event.

Journalists and media professionals will be indirectly involved in reporting of the implementation and progress of the project for the general public, and contacted by the project partners.

3) Decision makers:

- WP9 - Round table. Decision makers will be invited to the round table and be contacted through the mailing list and networks of the partner organizations, as well as direct contacts and invitations. Possible decision makers to be involved: members of EU Parliament from each partner country; representatives of national minorities; members of national Parliament and local municipalities. Around 10 decision makers, 1 event

2.2 Project name and number

All documents (both public and restricted), presentation, newsletter, e-newsletter, deliverable, leaflet, sticker, invitation, etc. related to the project must be marked with the assigned project number: 101143703. In that way, we will secure that materials are easily connected with the project and recognizable. Also, having the number, the interested public can easily find more details about the project and its results on CERV platforms or other online platforms.

2.3 European Commission logo and disclaimer

To acknowledge the support received under the CERV Programme, all projects documents and materials must include the visual identity elements prescribed by the Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) of the European Commission, namely:

- the logo, which may not be changed, not proportionally scaled or distorted
- the disclaimer.

2.4 Partner web-pages

As all the partners have their official web-sites, which are followed by their target groups and other interested public, all the materials produced will be published there as they are developed. This will create greater access for interested people from different countries and, at the same time, in respective languages. That will ensure that the materials are seen and downloaded by the already existing public and partner's network of the consortium.

2.5 Social media platforms

All the project's results will be published on the existing social media platforms of the partners, and in that way, they will be disseminated to their target groups and the broader public. The results will be in a format that is easy to download and user friendly (PDF). The online campaign will be implemented on SABA RH portal (<https://sabh.hr/>), and other partners will be free to publish and share posts connected with the project on other social media profiles. The SABA portal is visited by around 18K viewers as for June 2024.
